

RAB Meeting Minutes 11/17/14

- Meeting with Marci
 - History of Evening Services
 - Areas open until 7 PM
 - Budget cuts
 - We should capitalize on tutoring and evening services
 - Hours are extended until 10 days after the quarter ends
 - Found funding for evening manager
 - More limited to basic services
 - Where should he be?
 - Upstairs failed
 - Worked in the popcorn room
 - Now in the Grove
 - Part student support
 - “Drumming up business”
 - Going into classrooms
 - Increasing knowledge and advertising
 - Now with an advisor
 - Put there because of Jim being in the classrooms
 - No funding
 - Bigger discussion with E-Team
 - More campus-wide coordinating needed
 - Weekend hours
 - More classes now offered on Saturdays
 - Help Marci with Proposal
 - Advertising
 - “What do you need and how much do you need it to open?”
 - Issues with piloting hours
 - Survey, find the need
 - Then pilot
 - $$
 - Make sure that students are using the services
 - Keep proposal limited
 - Data quintessential
 - Gathering Data
 - Help from Jack for tips
 - “I wish”
 - “I wish this was open”
 - “If you want the library open, is it all quarter long”
 - Specialized help from departments and discussions
- Goals
 - Set up goals and deadlines to achieve more
 - Doable and measurable goals

- Tangible goals
- Bringing up the word of student leadership
- E-newsletter
- Attending other meetings
- Building relationships
- Get to know the other people on other boards
- All SL Meeting
 - Get people out of their cliques
 - Training too short
 - Go to Erin Meetings more
 - Common meetings (2x a week)
 - Set some goals and actually do it
- Student success components
 - Use own experiences as a starting point
 - Student needs and interest