

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IS SLAVERY.

All people deserve a life free from exploitation and abuse.

WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN WASHINGTON STATE!

Join us for a conversation with WARN, the Washington Anti-trafficking Response Network, about the state of modern slavery and the exploitation and abuse of trafficked people in our city and state. We will also be discussing how we as community members can act in solidarity with survivors of human trafficking.

WHERE: Green Room, College Center
Building (North Seattle College)

WHEN: 12:00 – 1:00 pm on Wednesday
May 27th 2015

Brought to you by the NSC Women's Center and the NSC
DAC Professional Development Subcommittee