Queer I Am Summit

Fri March 25 - Sat March 26, 2016

South Puget Sound Community College, Olympia, WA

This summit is a get-together of LGBTQ+ students and staff from different community colleges and the larger LGBTQ community. The program over two days includes speakers, facilitated workshops, meals, a dance party, poetry performances, and many other activities. This is an opportunity to learn more about LGBTQ issues, meet people, and enjoy being in community.

The summit takes place in Olympia and any student at North Seattle College can apply. If you are selected, based on your answers on the application form, the college will cover your transportation, registration costs, meals, and hotel for one night. You will share a hotel room with one other student. The trip to the Queer I Am Summit is organized by Student Leadership & Multicultural Programs.

If you are selected, you will be required to attend a brief orientation meeting where you will fill out paperwork (e.g. travel forms), learn about student conduct on field trips, meet the advisors and other students, and have a chance to ask questions.

It's going to be a lot of fun!
